2. Officer Reports

President Report: Kathi Obendorfer talked about the changes of the past year. Although there were many challenges, several projects were accomplished. The first project was the Halloween Safe Walk. It was well attended. The second project was the Art Festival, but it was postponed due to hurricane Ian and the uncertainty of both vendors and attendees. One of the biggest successes of 2022 was the Christmas Street Event. Many contributions allowed for 26 bikes and helmets to given away to youth for the holidays. She thanked everyone for their support of this project.

She recapped the various events that OEVA sponsored throughout the year, Cruisin on Dearborn, Seafood Festival, Halloween Safe Walk and the Christmas Street Event.

She presented a Calendar of Events for 2023 and stated that moving forward OEVA would concentrate on increasing membership in the organization. Currently there is 20 members which 7 are board members.

Vice President's report: John Majka stated he is working on a actual board to record the names of businesses that support OEVA throughout the year. This board will be displayed at the events that OEVA sponsors. He is also working on flags for the streetlamps on Dearborn which will be displayed during the events and holidays. He also stated that he would be working with Les Bernstein's Events Committee on T-shirts for OEVA to be sold at various events, thereby creating additional income for the organization.

Treasurer Report: Joyce Colmar - The Treasurer provided an annual report about the account balances of the organization. The total combined account balances was $28,039.87.

Secretary Report: Jim Schepers – The Secretary reported that 3 seats are available for filling this year. They are seats #7,8 and 9. Currently, seat # 1 is filled by Joyce Colmar; #2 by Les Bernstein, # 3 by Leslie Brown, #4 by Kathi Obendorfer, #5 by Jim Schepers, #6 by Merrill Hollinger and number 7, which is up for election, by John Majka. The terms of these seats are 3 years. In forthcoming years 3 seats will be up for the election at the Annual Meeting. The election for this year will be under New Business.
